HOME COMING DAY PLANS STARTED

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR.

Matters of Great Importance Planned for Convocation Tuesday at 9.

Guy Mooney, Kaimin editor, was elected chairman of the student council at a regular meeting held last night. Harry Adams, senior president, was elected vice chairman and Helen Little, president of the Women's Self Government association, secretary.

The student council is composed of the president of the A. S. U. M., vice president of the A. S. U. M., president of the Women's Self Government association, editor of the Kaimin, yell king, one member of the faculty and the presidents of the four classes and the president of the University.

The annual Homecoming day was set for November 13. A committee composed of Guy Mooney, chairman, Ann Wilson and James Murphy was appointed to work in co-operation with a committee appointed by the faculty to make all arrangements for the event. The student committee will meet Saturday at 1:30 to start plans before the faculty committee is appointed. It was decided to hold the annual soph-fresh contests on the morning of Homecoming day. Pat Keeley was appointed chairman of a committee composed of himself and the presidents of the four classes to decide upon men who are eligible to participate in the soph-fresh battles.

Student organizations are requested to help the student council have every student attend a special student convocation Tuesday at 9 o'clock. Several important matters will be discussed at this convocation. The most important of these is the discussion of the idea of the incorporation of the A. S. U. M. store, with directors, separate from the A. S. U. M. George Witter, debate manager, will speak for 10 minutes urging men to come out for debate. Another matter to be discussed is the awarding of a uniform "M" to athletes in the major sports, also the issuance to all "M" men permanent tickets of admittance to all athletic contests held at the University.

Yell King Keeley was authorized to appoint some man with musical ability to assist him. This man is to be known as the yell duke.

Pat Keeley, James Murphy and Ronald Kain were appointed in a committee to welcome the visitors from Wesleyan down here for the game between Wesleyan and Montana Saturday. The student council decided to ask Silent Sentinel, honorary senior society, to take (Continued on Page Four.)

COUGAR-BRUIN BATTLE GIVEN PLAY BY PLAY

Will Have Exact Location of Ball and Exact Downs Each Time.

Arrangements are being made by Professor Charles Farmer for the construction of a telegraphic loop by which the reports of the Washington State College-Montana State University football game, to be played in Pullman October 30, may be sent to Missoula in the same manner in which the Washington-Montana game was reported to Missoula.

Two possible improvements in the service, which should make it decidedly superior to that used in the Washington U-Montana U game, are being worked on by Professor Farmer. First: The exact location of the ball will be given with every message, and, second: the exact downs will be given. These two important phases in the report of a football game were neglected in the Seattle game because proper arrangements were not made with the operator, Mr. Farmer said.

M MEN TAKE NOTE.

"M" men—wear your sweaters to the game Saturday. Wear them to every convocation and to all classes on convocation days.

HARRY ADAMS,
President M Club.

CO-ED HOOP STARS BEGIN SEASON'S WORK

About Nine Teams to Compete for Basketball Honors This Year.

Basketball practice in preparation for the inter-organization tournament will begin immediately. It is thought that about nine teams, including the five sororities on the campus and Craig Hall, Out of Town, and the Eloise Knowles cottage teams will participate.

Every team has good material and it is thought that interest in basketball is even greater this year than last.

The Town team, which succeeded in capturing the tournament for the past two years, will be seriously weakened by the loss of Alma Burkhardt, who is now Mrs. Calvin Doty, Florence Faust, a 1920 graduate, and Solvay Andresen, who is now a member of the Alpha Phi team. Lillian Christensen, star forward, will be the chief mainstay of this year's team.

Pearl Degenhart and Bonna Pearsoll, members of last year's Craig hall team, which made strong bids for the championship, will again play this season.

Kappa will be strongly represented by Ann Wilson, Olive Dobson and Catherine Sanders of the crack players of last year's team and will also be strengthened immensely by Helen Gregory of Billings.

Helen Little, Irma Wagner, Lillian Goff and Harriet Armitage will be the main contenders to uphold the Theta honors. Theta is seriously weakened by the loss of Virginia McAuliffe, who last year won individual basket shooting honors.

Prospects for the Alpha Phi team are far above those of last year. It will be remembered that the Alpha Phi's succeeded in losing the Eloise Knowles cottage team out of cellar honors. This year, however, with the aid of Ruth James of last year's team, Bertha Ries, Nina Moore, Emma Quast and Solvay Andresen, it is thought that cellar honors will be gladly given to some other team.

Delta Sigma Chi has Elsie Thompson, Doris Gaily, Ovidia Gudmansen and Hilda Benson of last year's team and some new material will aid in giving their team a strong chase for championship honors.

Jewell Godfrey of the Delta Gamma team is the only player of last year that is left to lead her team to victory.

FIGHTING BRUINS IN FOR BATTLE

W. S. C. TEAM IS STRONG SAYS BIERMAN.

Grizzlies Won From Cougars 10 to 0 With Team of 1914.

Montana's fighting Grizzlies will meet with some strong opposition when they invade the territory of the cougar, in Pullman October 30. Coach Bierman is anticipating nothing easy when he sends his team against Washington State College.

The Cougars have won every contest with Montana in football except for the memorable year of 1914. The 1914 Grizzlies are reputed to have been the strongest team that Montana has ever produced and they took W. S. C. into camp to the tune of 10 to 0.

Montana has again come to the front with her moleskin warriors and defeated the heavy team of the University of Washington. Perhaps the 1914 team will sink out and the 1920 Grizzlies will take their place. However, that remains to be seen. The game October 30 will tell part of the story, but it is no sine-cure.

Washington State has her 1919 champion team back with the exception of three positions and capable men are in those places. Former captain Dick Hanley is out but he has left another Hanley to take his place. Sax is playing quarterback for the Cougars and he has (Continued on Page Four.)

ABSENT VOTERS ASKED TO SEND FOR BALLOTS

Request From State Secretary Calls Upon Students to Use Vote.

In a recent communication from Secretary of State Charles T. Stewart to President Sisson he requested all registered voters in the University who will not be in their voting precincts on November 2 to send to their respective county clerks for ballots so that these ballots may be returned in time for the count at the closing of the polls on election day.

"The present political situation," said Mr. Stewart, "calls for every loyal citizen to exert what influence he has to aid in insuring for the future a good stable government."

A special form may be had upon request at the clerk and recorder's office at the Missoula county courthouse, which is used to apply for an absent voter's ballot.

Popular Co-eds Are Revealed By Ballots

The most popular co-ed in the University, as decided by the beauty contest, will be given a chance to go on the stage. She will be offered a part in the musical comedy to be produced during the winter by the Masquers club.

Fifteen co-eds have been chosen by their friends to run today in the finals. Today the girls will be chosen who will receive the roses. As a result of the untiring efforts of their admirers, 50 dollars have been poured into the coffers of the University Funds campaign.

Those who are in the front ranks are:

Helena Badger, Esther Bierman, Mary Brown, Eleanor Harvey, Dorothy Hutton, Dorothy Leary, Ruth McQuay, Winifred Meeks, Virginia Morse, Mabel Simpkins, Marion Schlick, Ann Wilson, Francis Wilson, Wynema Wolverton, Virginia Yegen.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON,
OCTOBER 17, 1920.

GEORGE SHEPARD,
PRESIDENT A. S. U. M.
UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA,
MISSOULA, MONT.

ALLOW ME TO CONGRATULATE YOU ON YESTERDAY'S VICTORY. YOUR TEAM PLAYED A WONDERFUL GAME. MAY OUR UNIVERSITY MEET YOU AGAIN IN THE FUTURE?

"Seven Keys to Baldpate" Given November 13 in Honor of Homecomers.

The visiting teams who play here on November 13, will be invited by James Farmer, president of the Masquers club, to attend the "Seven Keys to Baldpate," to be produced by the club that night at the Liberty theater. The teams will be provided with box seats.

November 13 is the night of Homecoming and it is in honor of the homecomers that the play is being given. The theater will be decorated for the occasion. Pat Keeley will lead in yells and songs between acts. The regular Liberty orchestra has been engaged.

Rehearsals for the play are being held under the direction of Mr. A. Dean every night. The members of the cast have been finally decided upon and the staff has been selected. The first scene the lounge in Baldpate Inn, has been designed by William Hughes and is being (Continued on Page Four.)

CAMPUS BAND RE-ELECTS JACKMAN AS DIRECTOR

Several New Members Sign Up for R. O. T. C. Band Work; More Are Expected.

At a meeting of the University band held Thursday afternoon Roscoe Jackman was re-elected director, William Wilson elected president and William Cogswell treasurer and librarian.

The band started last year as a voluntary student organization and was later recognized by the R. O. T. C., and became affiliated with that department. Owing to the lack of funds of the University, members have to furnish their own instruments and furnish their own director, while the money for music is furnished by the A. S. U. M.

Several new men have signed up for band work this year, and according to Director Jackman, many more are still available.

Sergeant Padgett, drum major, has been putting the bandmen through a series of band marchings and tactics this week.

MONTANA PLAYS W. S. C. ON PULLMAN GRIDIRON

Manager Lansing Trying to Get Direct Train Connections Pullman to Missoula.

Pullman will be the site of the Montana-Washington State College game.

In response to Graduate Manager Harold Lansing's inquiries the W. S. C. management stated it would be impossible to play in Spokane as student season tickets had been sold. Mr. Lansing has written to the Northern Pacific company in an endeavor to have the Inland Empire train wait at Pullman until after the game on the thirtieth, so that connections can be made with the train for Missoula. If this arrangement materializes those seeing the game can be back in Missoula Monday morning.

MONTANA PLAYS WESLEYAN TEAM

WILL MEET THE MINISTERS AT 2:30 TOMORROW.

Visitors Are Expected to Have a Stronger Eleven Than in Former Years.

Crippled and sore after the hard fought victory over the University of Washington last Saturday, the Montana Grizzlies face the Montana Wesleyan eleven on Dornblaser field at 2:30 Saturday afternoon. The Ministers are reputed to have an unusually strong team this year, and from their showing against other teams of the state should put up an interesting game with the Bruins.

According to Coach Bierman the Montana Bruins are not in fighting trim. Injuries received in the game with Washington have weakened the team considerably. Harry Adams, the star of the Sun Dodger game, is unable to be in togs, but is showing improvement and may be in the Washington State College game October 30.

Higbee, a fast half, "Bullet Joe" Kershner, fullback, Daylis, end, and Barry, half, are suffering from minor injuries, but will be able to start tomorrow. Coach Bierman will use the same lineup at the starting whistle that he did against Washington as far as the condition of the men will allow. Unless it is absolutely necessary the regulars will not be used the whole game, as it is expected that Bierman will save them for the harder game with the Cougar eleven.

The preachers' real strength is not known. By comparative scores they should give the Varsity a stiff game. Last Saturday the Montana State college defeated the preachers by a score of 17-7. The Montana-School of Mines won from them by a 27-7 score the week before. In former years the Montana schools were able to down Wesleyan by a larger score. That means that either Wesleyan has a stronger team than in previous years or that the Aggies and Mines are not up to standard.

Coach Bierman has had the fighting Grizzlies out on the field every night this week, perfecting the work of his machine and remedying the faults exposed last Saturday. In view of the coming games, and the condition of his squad, he is not enthusiastic over the prospects. He is not planning on having Saturday afternoon off, but believes that the Bruins should win from the preachers without great difficulty.

The game tomorrow will also serve to show the relative strength of Montana with the Aggies and the Mines.

Since the Montana victory over the Sun Dodgers, other schools of the state have one big idea in mind. The Aggies state the idea in their slogan, "We want Bear Meat." The Grizzlies intend to let the rest of the state know, through tomorrow's game, that Bear is out of Season on Dornblaser field.

NOTICE TO SENIORS.

All students who expect to obtain a degree at the close of the Autumn or Spring quarter must file an application in duplicate at the Registrar's office not later than October 29th. Applications failing to meet this requirement can be considered only by a three-fourths vote of the Faculty. (See page 18, Student Handbook).

J. B. SPEER,
Registrar.

AT HOME TO STUDENTS.

On Monday evenings, beginning October 25, from 8 to 11, President and Mrs. E. O. Sisson will be at home to all the students and faculty of the University. This is a resumption of the informal open house plan originating with President and Mrs. Sisson in the fall of 1917 and continuing since.

ARE YOU GOIN GTO VOTE?

The Kaimin is not, and has no intentions or ambitions of becoming a political organ. However, there are many registered voters in the University from other counties. If they are to vote in the coming election it is time they were sending for their absent voter's ballot. This may be done by calling at the office of the clerk and recorder of Missoula county, on the second floor of the Missoula county courthouse. The ballot must be received by the voter, marked and back to the voter's home precinct before the polls close November 2.

This is an important election. On the campus there is much enthusiasm concerning initiative measures Nos. 18 and 19. University students should also be interested one way or the other in the good roads bonds, the irrigation project bonds, and the proposed amendment concerning the primary law. National politics this year are overshadowed by the importance of the state issues to be referred to the referendum of the rank and file of the voting men and women a week from next Tuesday.

Get your absent voter's ballot, and do it before it is too late.

WRITE IT TODAY.

Have we written our letter a day? Most of us have not. Are we doing our share in the greatest task that was ever set before the University? Most of us are not. Is it hard to realize what the outcome will be if these measures No. 18 and 19 do not pass? Can we picture our school as a failure because of the lack of funds, of buildings, of equipment? Our instructors who have been with us since the first years in the life of this school would be forced to leave—not because they wanted to, but because they could not live on under conditions worse than they are now. Departments and schools which have gained a reputation throughout the country would be discontinued.

We are proud of our University of Montana. We boost her whenever we have the chance. We will still be proud of her, more proud perhaps, when the day comes when we must leave her. But would we not feel worthier if we had, in a way, showed our appreciation—if we felt that we had helped make the University of Montana what she is and what she will be in the future?

And now she asks for that help. We are given a proposition—are we willing to give the little aid that is in our power to give, to help Montana on to victory and success?

We are asked to write a letter a day. There are about nine hundred students here. Out of that number two hundred have written their letter a day. Two hundred out of nine hundred.

How about it?—M. R.

THE BAND.

The band on this campus is an organization that is always present, whenever the occasion demands. Whether it be a football game, rally, convocation, or victory or celebration, the band is always there in full force.

This year the leader, Roscoe Jackman, was unable to return at the beginning of the year. Then it was William Wilson, two years a player in the organization, stepped to the front and kept the band intact. We could go on and give every man a boost for his loyalty and self denial for the good of the band. Every member of the band is doing and has done in the past, his part in gaining victories. They do not perform on the football field, and are not greeted as heroes. But they do their part. That is the acid test of loyalty.

The men of the band turn out for practice every evening at 5. We have numerous occasions to observe their performance this year. The men are buying their own music, and they do not complain about it either.

Let the band know you appreciate its existence. It rates it.

November 12 the R. O. T. C.

is giving a dance for the benefit of the band. The money derived will go to purchase band music and supplies. This is the opportunity of the student body to support the band. Incidentally, it is the night before Homecoming and the Aggie game. Let the old guards who will be here see that we appreciate our band.

THEY ALSO SERVE.

The editor found it impossible to be back on the campus until last Saturday. Sadie Erickson took over the disorganized ship and brought The Kaimin out on time. And this at a time when staff disorganization was at its height. Sadie and her associates had the spirit of service.

We have heard some criticism of their fruition. We expect to hear many more criticisms of The Kaimin throughout the year. They gave their best efforts. Their reward was some criticism and possibly some favorable comments. Their main reward was a personal feeling of work well done.

It is more easy to criticize than to do something constructive for the advancement of the student body. The Kaimin is published entirely by students, not journalists of years of diversified and varied experience. Please bear this in mind before criticising unduly.

DEBATE PROSPECTS GOOD SAYS E. L. FREEMAN

Montana's outlook for debate this year is encouraging, according to Professor E. L. Freeman. All the members of last year's teams are in the University and new candidates are waiting for the debate season to open.

The teams will be chosen by a new plan this year. All intercollegiate contestants will be chosen from a debate squad that is to be formed in November. "It is the football principle of earning the position through consistent and hard practice that we want to establish this year," says Coach Freeman.

Contests have been arranged with Montana State college, Washington State college, Idaho and Utah. Manager George Witter will present the debate program in detail at convocation Wednesday.

The members of the Home Economics club entertained Thursday evening for the freshmen girls who have decided to either major or minor in that department.

Mrs. Quincy Scott, secretary to the dean of women, is in receipt of several letters from Mrs. K. W. In one of these letters Mrs. Jameson asks that a copy of the rushing rules in force at Montana be sent her, saying that while the Arizona girls appear to be well organized, they may benefit through the adoption of some of these rules. She adds that the University of Arizona is crowded quite as tightly as into 20 buildings as the University of Montana is confined to its six.

Mrs. Jameson, in addition to her duties as dean of women at the Arizona institution, is teaching German.

FRATERNITY AND CLASS HOOP SCHEDULE FIXED

Basketball Contests to Start Late in November and End in December.

A schedule of dates for the inter-fraternity, inter-class and inter-departmental basketball games was completed yesterday by Coach B. W. Bierman. Drawings for the completion of the schedule have not been held, but plans are being made for the representatives of the different organizations to meet in Coach Bierman's office November 2 at 1 o'clock to make arrangements for places and to select officials.

The schedule is as follows.

1. Inter-fraternity preliminaries, November 29.

third entertainment of the sort, one having been given last winter and one during the summer quarter. Several one-act plays will be given by one of Mr. Dean's classes and refreshments will be served a la Hallowe'en. ### FIGHTING BRUINS IN FOR BATTLE the name of being the most dangerous backfield man in the northwest. "Big" Mike Moran and Gillis, who are well remembered by Montana students, who watched their team go down to defeat last Thanksgiving day, 42 to 14, are back, and have shown both Gonzaga and Idaho supporters that they are as fast as ever.

Two weeks ago the Cougars trampled Gonzaga underfoot and one week ago they made the University of Idaho their victims. Pullman greatly outdistanced Idaho in the yardage gained. Sax, Moran and Gillis are mentioned as making terrific plunges through the Idaho line for large gains.

Eldon Jenne, just returned from the Olympic games where he participated in the pole vault, is back and he still has his aggressive toe. Bert Brooks, all-star tackle, Buck O'Connor, a lineman from Knox college; Butch Durrwachter, a backfield man, and Stun Bray, a last year frosh end, are all on Coach Wesh's squad and are expected to do much to bar the way between the Grizzlies and the goal post.

This will be the second conference game for Montana and probably the hardest. The championship is still a long way off, for W. S. C., Idaho and Whitman must be defeated if that goal is to be reached. It is a hard path and while Montana has a team that she may be proud of, W. S. C., Idaho and Whitman will not be expected to go down in defeat without putting up games that will well be worth seeing.
